The Sorrowful Mysteries of the Holy Rosary
First…The Agony in the Garden
Second…The Scourging at the Pillar
Third…The Crowning of Thorns
Fourth…The Carrying of the Cross
Fifth…The Crucifixion

.Once again we fall on our knees in our Lenten journey as we pray the final Sorrowful Mystery:

The Crucifixion
"And bowing His head, He gave up His Spirit"

O Lady of Sorrows, as you stood at the foot of the Cross your heart was breaking. You heard Jesus utter His last words. The Master prayed that His Father forgive His enemies because they were ignorant; He promised Paradise to the good thief on that very day; He entrusted John to you and you to John in the relationship of Mother and Son. He appealed to the Father for help in His agony; He cried out in thirst; He spoke His "consummation" and commanded His Spirit to the Heavenly Father. Now, Mary, the Prophecy of Simeon is fulfilled! The seventh sword has pierced your heart and you yourself would have died had not God sustained you. St. Longinus, the Roman soldier, thrust the spear into the side of Jesus from which blood and water came forth. Symbolically that represented the birth of the Church.

Our Lady of the Rosary, obtain for me from your Son the grace to be "obedient unto death even to the death of the Cross."

Please pray this decade every evening with your family and meditate on these words. Amen.

May this Lent bring you closer to Jesus, each day.

God Bless.

SOLEMNITY OF SAINT JOSEPH
Husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary

"Being a guardian is the distinctive trait of Joseph: Being the guardian is his great mission . . . We look to Joseph as the model educator, who watches over and accompanies Jesus as he grows 'in wisdom, age and grace,' as the Gospel says. He was not Jesus' father: the father of Jesus was God, but he was a father to Jesus, he was a father to Jesus in order to help him grow. And how did he help him grow? In wisdom, age and grace."

Saint Patrick

C. 389-461
FEAST DAY: MARCH 17

The patron saint of Ireland, Patrick was born in Roman Britain. He describes his life and ministry, including his work to convert the Irish people, in his short autobiography and testimony, Confess-ions. Kidnapped at age 16 by Irish raiders and sold into slavery in Ireland, his time spent in captivity transformed him spiritually. He was a lonely shepherd for six years before escaping and returning home.

After returning home, his dream of converting the Irish from pagan belief propelled him to priestly studies in Gaul (now France). In about 432, Pope Celestine I consecrated him as a bishop and sent him to Ireland. For nearly 30 years, he preached tirelessly, made countless converts, founded monasteries, and established the primatial see at Armagh in modern-day Northern Ireland.

Toward the end of his life, he made a 40-day retreat on Croagh Patrick mountain in present-day County Mayo. That gave rise to the pilgrimages that are made on the mountain to this day. Stories that Patrick used the shamrock to explain the Trinity and drove snakes from the island are unconfirmed legend.
